

Picture Book Creation Competition

This competition provides an opportunity for P1 to P6 students to apply their mother tongue language knowledge as well as their drawing skills.

Students are asked to create their own picture books based on various themes and topics. Training sessions are provided by teachers to help students learn how to design a picture book.

Gallery

